Personal Independence Payment

Your Appeal

Dear Mr Shakespeare

His Majesty's Courts and Tribunals Service (HMCTS) have contacted us to let us know you have appealed against your Personal Independence Payment decision following your mandatory reconsideration. They have asked us to provide a response to this explaining why the original decision was made.

We have looked at the points you have raised in your appeal and we have sent our response to HMCTS for them to consider. A copy of our response is enclosed for your information. HMCTS will contact you regarding your appeal.

If you have any questions or queries regarding your appeal, please contact HMCTS directly on the number they gave you when you lodged your appeal.

If you need to contact us, we will need your full name, address and National Insurance number. We are open Monday to Friday 8am to 7.30pm.
